

Miss Basinger's First Grade Newsletter January 5, 2017

This is what we are studying:

- Word of the week: humility
- Working on adding and subtracting and missing addend: $2 + __ = 7$
- We began our unit of study that introduces bears and their same/different attributes. We will then venture into our new Project Lead the Way study of animal adaptations/habitats. 😊
- We have a new student in our class whose name is Noah and are so excited! Up to 24 students 😊 16 girls, 8 boys!
- Monday- please send a teddy bear to school with your child!! One that they do NOT sleep with because we are going to be reading different teddy bear stories along with our nonfiction bear research! We will be talking about the history of the teddy bear and where the name originated from: "Teddy" Roosevelt.

UPCOMING EVENTS:

Jan 9 & 11- MAP testing
these mornings- please make sure your child gets plenty of rest and eats a healthy breakfast the night before.
Send teddy bear Monday (Jan 9)!

Jan 16- NO SCHOOL- MLK JR
DAY!

THUNDER CHALLENGE

The January reading log was sent out yesterday! Please make sure to keep track of your reading minutes-remember if your child doesn't have the most minutes for one month, they could still be eligible to win the overall most minutes prize at the end.
