THUNDER CHALLENGE

The December reading log will be due back Jan 4 when we return from break. I have to have them turned in very quickly after that.

This is what we studied:

- Word of the week: courage
- Working on doubles in math
- We continued our author study of Jan Brett ☺ This week we read Trouble with Trolls, Gingerbread Baby, and Gingerbread Friends.
- We made mitten, hat, and gingerbread house writing/crafts to go along with our stories.
- We are working on 3-D shapes: cylinder, rectangular prism, sphere, and cube.
- We are working on patterns.
