

Miss Basinger's First Grade Newsletter May 4, 2017

Remember! Tabletop teaching is next week!!

Here is the schedule for your child's day! (they will use the whole block of time for teaching but each of the rotations start at the following times: 9:50, 10:10, 10:30, 10:50, 11:10)

Monday- Gabe, Lillian, Katherine, Kailyn, Emma

Tuesday- Nora, Genesis, Cooper, Mary, Scout

Wednesday- Mia, CaMaurie, Carson, Kash, Eli

Thursday- Kaycee, Caiden, Ashiya, Elle

Friday- Ryan, Maya, Noah, Sebastian

This is what we studied:

- The word of the week: flexibility
- We have been researching butterflies, silkworms, and other insects.
- We have been working on adding and subtracting 10 on the 100s chart.
- We read more Frog and Toad stories.
- We are working on finishing pictures to practice symmetry with butterfly pictures.
- We reviewed fractions.
- We continued to work on double digit addition.
- We have been testing our reading levels as well!
- We started collecting quarters and dollars at calendar time, and learning that a quarter is $\frac{1}{4}$ of a dollar.

Scholastic order is due Tues. May 9th. It is the last one! Please be sure to read over the summer to help your child stay on track for next school year. There are coupons on your catalogs to help you get started.

Our online code is NNCNK.

Upcoming Events:

MAY 11- Muffins with mom in the gym!

MAY 22 Blast off and opening ceremony to International Explorers Event which runs MAY 22 & 23.

MAY 24- Field DAY

MAY 25- Closing ceremony- last day of school!

Thank you SOO SOO much for all my wonderful goodies and supplies!!! I am so thankful for all of your generosity! We have been having a blast at recess with our new toys! Our Base 10 blocks are also SO helpful in building numbers and adding them together.

I only have 15 days left with your children! I am going to miss them so much! Thankful for this amazing year with them.
